

The economic research institute of the Public University of Navarre

- Research institute created in 2015
- More than 50 UPNA researchers from diverse backgrounds:
 - Management
 - Financial Economics
 - Marketing
 - Applied Economics
 - Economic Theory
 - Economic History
 - Quantitative Methods
 - Statistics
 - Operational Research
 - Agricultural Economics
 - Civil Law
 - Commercial Law
 - Labor Law

Three areas of study:

 Firms

 Markets

 Public Policies

Main fields of research

- Strategy, organization and management
- Financial markets and financial law
- Innovation management and entrepreneurship
- Consumer behaviour and consumer law
- Efficiency, productivity, performance measurement
- Health Economics and Policy
- Energy Economics and Policy
- Foundations of economic decision-making
- Regional economics and regional disparities

- Academic research
 - ✓ Theoretical and Applied Research
 - ✓ National R&D Plan
 - ✓ EU research projects
- Knowledge transfer: contracted research with firms and public institutions
 - ✓ economic and financial surveys
 - ✓ industry reports
 - ✓ expert and assessment reports
 - ✓ legal analysis

<http://www.unavarra.es/inarbe>

inarbe@unavarra.es